9. Fraud and corruption

The company requires that applicants observe the highest standard of ethics during the procurement and execution of contracts. In pursuit of this policy, all parties are required to desist from engaging in corrupt, fraudulent, collusive and coercive practices that in so doing influence a procurement process or the execution of a contract or establish bid prices at artificial uncompetitive levels.

To enforce this standard, the company will:

- a) Reject a proposal for award if it is determined that a bidder recommended for award has, directly or indirectly, engaged in the prohibited act,
- b) Cancel the contract which is a subject of the prohibited act,
- c) Sanction a firm or individual declaring them ineligible, either indefinitely or for a stated period of time, to award a company a contract if at any time determines that they have directly or indirectly engaged in the prohibited act.
- d) Refer to other organizations database to verify whether the applicant has been so sanctioned.

The Company defines, for the purposes of this provision, the terms set forth below as follows:-

- (i) 'Corrupt Practice' means the offering, giving, receiving, or soliciting, directly or indirectly, of anything of value to influence the action of an official in the procurement process or in contract execution.
- (ii) 'Fraudulent Practice' means the misrepresentation or omission of facts in order to influence the procurement process or the execution of a contract.
- (iii) 'Collusive Practice' means a scheme or arrangement between two or more bidders, with or without the knowledge of the Company, designed to establish bid prices at artificial, noncompetitive levels, and
- (iv) 'Coercive Practice' means harming or threatening to harm, directly or indirectly, persons or their property to influence their participation in the procurement process or effect the execution of a contract.

10. Other sanctions

The company shall provide sanctions against firms that have not performed according to professionally regulated procedures, contractual agreements or legislation. The latter includes those in serious violations of fair employment laws & practices and known violation of the Public Procurement and Disposal Act, 2005; and the Public Procurement and Disposal Regulations, 2006.

11 Waiver

The Company reserves the right to waive minor deviations in the qualification criteria if they do not materially affect the capability of an applicant to be pre-qualified.
