

PORTLAND NewsDesk

OFFICIAL NEWSLETTER OF THE EAST AFRICAN PORTLAND CEMENT PLC

EAPC Shines as Proud Sponsor of the 2025 Top Property Show

CPA. Mohamed Adan- Managing Director, speaking at the 2025 Top Property Awards Show.

East African Portland Cement PLC (EAPC) was honoured to serve as one of the premier sponsors of the 2025 Top Property Show, an influential annual forum that celebrates leadership and excellence across Kenya’s rapidly evolving property and construction sectors. The event, hosted in Nairobi’s Safari Park Hotel, brought together a distinguished audience of developers, architects, engineers, financiers, policy makers, and industry innovators, making it one of the most significant gatherings within the built environment space.

This year’s edition focused on driving sustainable growth, promoting modern building technologies, and strengthening partnerships that support Kenya’s housing and infrastructure agenda. As a key industry enabler, EAPC’s participation reaffirmed its longstanding commitment to delivering high-quality cement solutions and supporting national development priorities.

In his remarks at the ceremony, Managing Director, CPA Mohamed Adan, highlighted the Company’s strategic direction, emphasizing innovation, operational efficiency, and customer-centred solutions as central pillars of EAPC’s renewed growth. He noted that, as one of the country’s oldest and most trusted manufacturers, EAPC continues to invest in advanced production processes and product diversification to meet the evolving needs of the construction industry.

The Managing Director further underscored EAPC’s role in supporting government initiatives aimed at boosting affordable housing, infrastructure expansion, and sustainable urban development. He reiterated that the Company remains a dependable partner to developers and contractors seeking building materials that guarantee durability, strength, and long-term performance.

CPA. Mohamed Adan- Managing Director, presenting a trophy to some of the winners at the event.

EAPC’s sponsorship of the Top Property Show reflects its broader ambition to contribute to the transformation of Kenya’s built environment, promote industry excellence, and foster meaningful collaboration with sector stakeholders. The Company remains committed to shaping a future where innovation, quality, and sustainability define the construction landscape.

By Grace Muna Public Relations Officer

EAPC PLC Drives Change: Lenkishon Primary School in Kajiado County Gets Life-Giving Borehole

From right, Mr. David Kilonzo- Head of Marketing, Corporate Affairs & Strategy, Martin Moshisho- Deputy Governor Kajiado County, Hon. Patrick Tutui- Board Director and Mr. Joseph Tikani- Principal, Lenkishon Primary School during the borehole commissioning.

In a heartfelt milestone, East African Portland Cement PLC (EAPC PLC) broke ground on a transformative borehole project at Lenkishon Primary School in Bissil, Kajiado County, quenching the thirst for clean water in the school and surrounding community.

The ground breaking event was graced by Board Director Hon. Patrick Tutui, Deputy Governor of Kajiado County Hon. Martin Moshisho, Mr. David Kilonzo, Head of Marketing, Corporate Affairs and Strategy, area Presiding Bishop Mr. John Letura, and Pastors. Also in attendance were the EAPC PLC Corporate Affairs team led by Mr. Simon Pasua, Community Liaison Officer, Bissil, CSR and Sustainability Officer Mr. Brian Tenkia, John Kurrat, Kennedy

Kilee and the vibrant Lenkishon community who witnessed this moment of hope.

Board Director Hon. Patrick Tutui said with a warm smile, “This project will bring a ripple of joy to Lenkishon, where every drop of clean water will write a new story of hope for these bright young minds and their families.” He thanked the EAPC PLC Board and the entire management for backing this vital initiative.

Deputy Governor of Kajiado County Hon. Martin Moshisho commended EAPC PLC’s support: “This borehole is a testament to EAPC PLC’s immense commitment to uplifting communities in Kajiado County.

Access to clean water will transform health, education, and livelihoods in Lenkishon and beyond. We appreciate EAPC PLC’s partnership in driving development here.”

Mr. David Kilonzo added touchingly, “Water is not just a basic need but it’s a necessity. Every community has a right to access clean water. For these kids, this borehole will beat stronger, washing away worries, and nurturing dreams big and small. We look forward to continuing our engagement with local communities and contributing to the growth and development of the regions in which we operate.” He appreciated the community for supporting the Company’s initiative, fostering a smooth working relationship between EAPC PLC and the community.

Area Presiding Bishop Mr. John Letura expressed deep gratitude: “EAPC PLC’s support goes beyond water, through bursaries, employment, school renovations, nurturing student talents. We thank the entire leadership of EAPC PLC for the continued support of the community.”

The borehole will boost safe water access, health, and school attendance, transforming lives in Lenkishon village and its environs. EAPC PLC’s initiative shows how partnership fuels positive change. The Lenkishon community now dreams of a brighter, water secure future.

By Simon Kidemi Pasua Community Liaison Officer.

East African Portland Cement PLC Sponsors the 2025 Captain's Prize Golf Tournament at Royal Nairobi Golf Club.

Leon Waiganjo- Marketing Officer, engages a customer at the exhibition stand during the Golf Tournament

East African Portland Cement PLC (EAPC PLC) sponsored the prestigious 2025 Captain's Prize Golf Tournament at the Royal Nairobi Golf Club, reinforcing its commitment to community engagement and Kenya's construction sector.

The Captain's Prize is one of the most prestigious events on the Nairobi golfing calendar, attracting seasoned players and newcomers alike. By sponsoring the tournament, EAPC PLC reaffirmed its commitment to fostering partnerships beyond the construction industry, embracing sports as a platform for unity, excellence, and community engagement.

In addition to its sponsorship, EAPC PLC hosted a dedicated exhibition booth at the venue. The booth became a hub of activity, drawing in participants eager to explore the company's diverse range of cement products. The PR and Marketing team were on hand to explain the durability, sustainability, and versatility of EAPC PLC's offerings from solutions for large-scale infrastructure projects to products tailored for residential construction.

Cynthia Ndaki- Customer Experience Assistant, explaining the cement making process to customers.

The sponsorship underscores EAPC PLC's broader vision: to be more than a cement manufacturer, but a partner in Kenya's growth story. By engaging with communities through sports, exhibitions, and educational initiatives, the company continues to cement its role as a trusted leader in both infrastructure and social development.

By Kennedy Kilee
Digital Communication Assistant